Dear NTMO Board,

This letter serves as documentation of my resignation from the NTMO Board.

Spirit led me to be part of the leadership of NTMO and is now directing me to focus fully on the maturing growth developing from seeds planted long ago. I am tending to my family, community, and profession. My role in family is key as mom, grandmother and spiritual leader, which is food for my soul. My experience and ability to create community awareness while developing heart filled ways to deeply connect is more sought after than ever before. The opportunity to write and publish books through Wise Woman Press, that inform the consciousness of its readers, came from a thought that manifested into form. I am also directed to continue my work as a Perceptual Trainer adding energetic biofeedback to enhance health and well being . A direction many others have joined me in.

All these fields are developed into nourishment for many. I am being asked to travel more than ever for my mastery and with my family.

I realize that I can no longer provide the support for the NTMO community that, as a leader, I committed to give. There are many places where I am empowered to provide my gifts.

I will miss all of you who give so much to the NTMO. Board. In addition to all of you, there are many others who I deeply respect in the NTMO community and hope that on occasion we will connect in service.

Know that my prayers are with you. My intention is for your success in all that you Vision.

In Love,

Sandra Scott Tabb
